

Sheep SAVED by a Shepherd: Preschool Lesson

This lesson (lesson 2) continues our series titled Yeshua HaMashiach (Jesus Christ) is My Good Shepherd. It is intended for preschool children, ages 2-5.

The first lesson plan (Sheep LOVED by a Shepherd) in this series taught students that they were like sheep, loved by a Shepherd. This second lesson teaches them that they are like sheep, saved by a Shepherd. We have also posted a third lesson (Sheep PROTECTED by a Shepherd.)

Objectives: To recognize Yeshua HaMashiach (Jesus Christ) as the Good Shepherd, who loved His sheep so much that He died in their place, for their sin.

Materials for Bible Lesson: a variety of sheep – stuffed animals or plastic farm toys (whatever you have available!) – five would be good; a rope that can be used as a “rescue train” for your child(ren) to hold onto; Bible

Bible Lesson: Prior to the Bible Lesson, have at least 4 sheep displayed around the room. Have one sheep hiding in a somewhat visible, but not obvious location.

If you utilized the Preschool Bible Lesson entitled “Sheep Loved by a Shepherd”, ask your child(ren) the following questions as a review:

- What kind of animal does God say we are like sometimes? (Sheep)
- Do you remember what a Shepherd does? (He takes care of his sheep.)
- Who is our Good Shepherd? Who takes care of us? (Yeshua HaMashiach (Jesus Christ))
- Whose voice should we learn to listen to? (The Good Shepherd or Yeshua)
- How do we hear His voice? (YHWH (God’s) word.)

Say: Last week we learned that we are like sheep, loved by a Shepherd. Yeshua HaMashiach (Jesus Christ) takes care of us. He knows each of us by name. I have some sheep here that I’d like to introduce you to. (Pick up sheep one by one.) This is Fleecey. Isn’t she soft and fluffy? This is Funny. He always make s me laugh. This is Froo-Froo. She always likes to get her nails done. But where is Flighty? Flighty....??? Oh dear, I don’t see him. Flighty, did you run away again? Oh my. Flighty, you know it’s not good to run away from your Shepherd. What do you think might happen to Flighty if he is alone somewhere?

(A wolf or dog might hurt him, he might eat plants that would hurt him, he might not be able to find his way home, he may be lonely, etc.)

Say: I think this calls for a Rescue Mission! Can you be a part of my Rescue Crew today? I need your help to find Flighty. Invite your child(ren) to climb on board “the rescue train.”(Have them hold onto a rope or whatever you have available.)

Say: All aboard. When I say chugga chugga. You say choo-choo! Let’s practice. Chugga chugga; choo-choo... Flighty! Chugga chugga choo choo Flighty! Lead the train around your space, finishing up near the hidden sheep. Encourage your child(ren) to look up high and down low, to the left and to the right.

Once a child spots Flighty, show genuine excitement! Give him a big hug, tell him you love him and you’re so glad he’s safe, and take him back to the classroom on your shoulders, leading the students all the while.

While you're holding Flighty, ask him: "Flighty, why did you leave the pen? It's safe here with the Shepherd. You could have gotten really hurt." Hold Flighty up to your ear, as if he is whispering to you. Nod your head as if you understand. Tell your child(ren), "Flighty thought that there was better grass to eat that way. He was tired of the grass here. But when he tried the grass far away, he realized that he really left the good stuff here and he was embarrassed. That grass tasted so awful that he had to spit it out!"

Ask your child(ren), "Have you ever done something you should not have done? (Allow for responses.) When you disobey your parents and disobey YHWH, that's called sin. In Isaiah 53:6 it says that, "We all like sheep have gone astray, each of us has turned to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all." Sometimes when we sin, we like to run away and hide, like Flighty today.

In Luke 15:4-7, there's a story about a shepherd who has 100 sheep. When one ran away, he searched everywhere to find him! And when he found him, he was so excited! He put it on his shoulders and went home to call all of his friends and neighbors. He said, "Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep!" But this story isn't just about a sheep, right? It's about us!

When we sin, it gets us into trouble, it hurts us, and it hurts others. In Romans 6:23 it says, "For the wages of sin is death." That's what we deserve when we sin! When Yeshua HaMashiach (Jesus Christ) died on the cross, he died for your sins and mine. He was the (perfect) Lamb of YHWH. He put all of our sins on Him, so he hurt for all of us. He died for your sins because He loves you. He died for your sins so that you wouldn't have to.

Let's thank God for His goodness to us today with a big round of applause, prayer, and some singing! Pray for each of the students to enter into a relationship with Christ. Sing "Yeshua HaMashiach (Jesus Christ) Loves Me."

Game: Sheep Pen

Materials: large sheets or blankets and furniture pieces arranged, as described below

Prior to the game, set up an area where your child(ren) can hide, as sheep in a pen. Arrange chairs and/or furniture pieces to accommodate a small group of children. You may need to have a couple of different sheep pens, depending on the number of children in your ministry setting.

Tell your child(ren) that sheep pens are places where sheep are protected from things that could hurt them, like wolves and dogs. In Bible times, sheep would stay in a place surrounded by rocks or wood. There would be one opening, like a door. Shepherds used to sleep in these openings and would guard the sheep with their own bodies. Many times in the Bible, Yeshua HaMashiach (Jesus Christ) calls himself the "door for the sheep." That means he protects us and provides for us.

Say: "Today, you get to pretend to be in a sheep pen of your own, safe and protected by your pen and the shepherd, who loves you and would die for you."

Have your child(ren) hide together somewhere, pretending to be sheep. Put a large sheet, blanket, or parachute over the furniture. Have one child pretend to be "the shepherd" and lay at the opening of the pen.

Say: this rhyme: (After a few times, your child(ren) will follow along.)

Here is the sheep pen, so big and so wide. Let's open the gate to see what's inside. 1-2-3-4-5!!!!

Pull the covering off the sheep pen and have your child(ren) say, "Baaa!"

Art Project: Sheep Bubble Art Option 1

Materials: 1-2 Tbsp paint, 1 Tbsp dish-washing liquid, ½ cup water, white construction paper sheep cutout, plastic drinking straws (one for each child), shallow pans (aluminum pie plates work best)

Prep ahead of time: Mix together the liquids and pour into the shallow pans.

1. Demonstrate the process first.
2. Dip one end of the straw into the mixture.
3. Blow to form bubbles. Once the bubbles reach the pan edge, stop blowing.
4. Place the paper sheep cutout on top of the bubbles and hold it in place. When the bubbles pop, they leave marks on the paper, looking somewhat like fleece.
5. Remove paper and place aside to dry.

Alternate Art Project: Sheep Bubble Art Option 2

Materials: small paper cups, straws, 1 tsp bubble solution per cup, food coloring drops, construction paper sheep cutout

Prep ahead of time: Pour bubble solution into each cup with a drop of food coloring in each. Mix together. Distribute one cup and one straw to each child.

1. Have your child(ren) blow bubbles onto their sheep cutouts.
2. Allow bubbles to pop on their own to create a design on the sheep.

We pray that this lesson will be a blessing to you and your children and that they will be a blessing to others.
